RE: SUIT NO. KWS/23/2017 - SENATOR BUKOLA SARAOKI, CON
V.SAHARA REPORTERS & OMOYELE SOWORE

Reference your letter dated 11th September, 2017 but received in our Lagos office on the 13th September, 2017 at exactly 12. 10 pm on the above subject matter.

In your said letter under reference, you claimed that your inability to serve your counter affidavits on us till this very moment was due to our "failure" to provide you with an address for service within jurisdiction.

Unfortunately, what you failed to disclose in your letter is that on 5th September, 2017 one Adams Adabara acting on our instructions visited your office at Ilorin and sought to collect your counter affidavits on our behalf for onward delivery to us in Lagos but he was told point blank by your secretary and colleagues in chambers that your firm was not ready to serve the said processes on the defendants' counsel and that whenever you chose to serve same you would reach out to us directly via the telephone number on our applications. The said Adams Adabara consequently sought to leave an address for service within jurisdiction with your firm through which he could be reached on our behalf but he was rudely excused from your office.
